Re: Steven Benner

Steven Benner was my employer for about six months. During and since that time, I have associated with Mr. Benner in both work and non-work situations. Steven has proven to be a very capable employer. He interacts well both on an individual and group basis. He has talent for developing camaraderie among co-workers.

On an individual basis, Steve demonstrates patience, compassion, and encourages success in others. I have seen him work well with a variety of personalities. He has an ability to make one feel comfortable and accepted. He is personable and a family-oriented man.

I highly recommend Mr. Benner for a teaching position. He will be an asset too your school.
